

I was one of the first to sign up for the No Call list in Wisconsin, and have just recently reaffirmed my desire to be on the list. I received just one phone call after signing up, and they hung up as soon as I mentioned I was on the list! I am so very happy not to have these people bothering me anymore. Please do not open the door for these companies to begin annoying the public again.